Iconic Basics

Rosie the Riveter

You can do it!! The symbol of American women who worked in factories to replace the men in time of war. Rosie is symbolic for the feminism and economic power of women.

Michelle Obama

Style, grace and power!! As being the first lady and married to the 44th president of the US, she blew everyone away with her style, grace and power to stay true to herself, her family and her role as first lady.

Madison Robertson

Youngest female entrepreneur!! At the age of eight she developed her own flipflop brand. She added more products to her kidsbrand, wrote books and participates in designing games and apps. 5 years old and earned her first million by her indepent and powerfull skills. Do not let anything stop you!!

Iconic Basic Bottoms

Mix and match your strenght, talents, power, visions or what ever what makes you, you!
Just like these bottoms. Create your own iconic personality and find your iconic bottom at Sapph.

Mary Richards Tyler

More female independence!! With her two roles in the television world she challenged the gender stereotypes rolls. She helped define the new role of womanhood. In her show she challenged payment equality for woman, homosexuality, infidelity and many more..

Amelia Earhart

Everything is possible!! A nurse in time of war, social worker in Boston and she studied medicine. After all that she took lessons in flying aircrafts and bought her own plane. Amelia was the first female who crossed the Atlantic Ocean all by her self in a plane. Everything was possible for Amelia!
